Discussion Questions:

- Is Dinosaur Day Out an imaginative, informative or persuasive text? How can you tell?
- Discuss the text layout of the book. The words are placed differently on each page. Why do you think the book designer chose to present the text this way? How does it change the way you read the book?
- On the whiteboard or on a large sheet of paper, place an image of the Dinosaur Day Out cover and surround it with words that describe the book. Include words that describe what you liked and what you disliked about the book.
- Examine several of the spreads and have a class discussion about the following:
  - * What is the main colour or colours used? What mood or feeling do these colours create?
  - * What objects are in the foreground (front), the midground and background of the picture? Why do you think the illustrator chose to do that?
  - * What are the characters on this page doing and where are they looking? Why are they doing this? What effect does this have?
- Write a book review on Dinosaur Day Out. Include what you liked about the book, who you think is the intended audience, who you think would enjoy it the most and mention any other books you think are similar.
- List some of the dinosaurs shown in this book. Can you think of any others?
- If you could have a dinosaur as a pet which one would you choose? Why?
- Have you ever been to a museum before? If so, what did you see?
- Do you think Sally and Max's Dad could see the dinosaurs in the city? Why or why not? Does anyone else notice the dinosaurs? Why or why not?
- List all the different activities that Sally and Max do on their adventure. Do you think they had fun? Do you think they're disappointed that the exhibition was closed?
- Create a play based on Dinosaur Day Out. Assign actors to play Sally, Max, Dad and the dinosaurs. Perform your play for your peers.
