Is it a plane? Is it a bird? No, it's My Sister is a Superhero, the third amazing and sensational picture book from talented author/illustrator team Damon Young and Peter Carnavas.

*Some sisters glide on scooters
next to lanes of tooting cars.
But my sister is a superhero ...
she races rockets around stars.*

All sisters are different. But what if your sister was really different? What if your sister was a superhero? A spectacular picture book celebrating our invincible sisters and the incredible love, laughter and adventure they bring into to our lives. A must for every family and library.

Themes:

- Sisters
- Relationships
- Superheroes

Discussion Points and activities:

- Read the story aloud and discuss the use of rhyme and rhythm in the story. How does it add to the mood of the story?
- In this story, we meet four different sisters. Create a profile of each of them, including:
 - * How they dress
 - * What are their hobbies
 - * How they get around
 - * What their jobs are
 - * What they eat
 - * What sport they like
 - * What they dream of
- If you have a sister, which sister in the story is she most like?
- Choose one of the sisters in this story. Write a story that includes this sister as the main character.
- How would you describe the relationship that the brother and sister in this story have?
- Write a reflection about the relationship that you have with either a sister, brother, cousin or even a close friend.
- Draw a picture of this same person as a 'superhero' and then give it to them as a gift.
- Each sister in the story has an animal 'sidekick'. Can you remember what each animal was? Why do you think they are in the story?
